

Be a Revenue Top Performer!

Drive More Revenue from Existing Accounts
With Collaborative Intelligence for Customer Success

You have way too many accounts to prioritize, track renewal cycles, predict churn, and identify the best time to reach out. It's not you; it's the lack of meaningful customer insights.

Cinchy Collaborative Intelligence liberates customer data from across the enterprise, connects the dots for more meaning, and puts it in the apps you already use so you can engage customers with relevant and timely upsell, cross-sell, and renewal offers.

Drive higher retention rates for less churn and more revenue growth.

Capture upsell and cross-sell opportunities when they're ripe.

Boost efficiency and effectiveness with relevant and actionable insights.

Get next-best actions to advance deals without hours of tedious manual research.

Enhance every apps' AI capabilities with complete and connected customer data.

Uncover your customer data blind spots

In just a few weeks and with minimal IT support, Cinchy frees customer data from CRM, marketing, finance, and other tools, defines the critical relationships between the data, and puts deal-driving insights at your fingertips.
